Your rights regarding medical information about you.

Your medical information is the property of Hegg Health Center. You have the following rights regarding medical information we maintain about you:

- In most cases, you have the right to look at or obtain a copy of medical information, when you submit a written request. If you request copies, we may charge a fee for the cost of copying, mailing or other related supplies. If we deny your request to review or obtain a copy, you may submit a written request for a review of that decision.
- If you believe that information in your record is incorrect or if important information is missing, you have the right to request that we amend the records by submitting a request in writing that provides your reason for requesting the amendment. We may deny your request to amend a record if the information was not created by us; if it is not part of the medical information maintained by us; or if we determine that record is accurate. You may appeal, in writing, a decision by us not to amend a record.

- You have the right to a list of those instances where we have disclosed medical information about you, other than for treatment, payment, health care operations or where you specifically authorized a disclosure, if you submit a written request. The request must state the time period desired for the accounting, which must be less than a six-year period and starting on or after April 14, 2003. The first disclosure list request in a 12-month period is free; other requests will be charged according to our cost of producing the list. We will inform you of the fee before you incur any costs.
- If this notice was sent to you electronically, you have the right to a paper copy of this notice.
- You have the right to request that medical information about you be communicated to you in a confidential manner, such as sending mail to an address other than your home, by notifying us in writing of the specific way or location for us to use to communicate with you.
- You may request, in writing, that we not use or disclose medical information about you for treatment, payment or health care operations or to persons involved in your care except when specifically authorized by you, when required by law, or in an emergency. We will consider your request but we are not legally required to accept it. We will inform you of our decision on your request. We will honor a request to restrict disclosure of your information to a health plan if:
 - ◆ The disclosure is for the purpose of carrying out payment or health care operations and is not otherwise required by law; AND
 - ◆ The information pertains solely to a health care item or service for which you, or someone on your behalf (other than your health plan), has paid us in full.

Please submit all written requests or appeals to our privacy office. Find our contact information at the bottom of this notice.

State Health Information Exchanges

Some states in which Avera is located have a state-wide, internet-based, health information exchange. These exchanges are sponsored by entities that are covered entities under the HIPAA privacy rules. These covered entities share and use your information for treatment, payment or health care operations purposes. Using a state health information exchange, the participating covered entities can see certain health, demographic and payment information (your health information) in each other's records. They can use this information for treatment, payment or health care operations. If an Avera facility participates in such a state health information exchange, its patients are included in the state health information exchange unless they specifically request to opt-out.

If you are concerned that your privacy rights may have been violated, or you disagree with a decision we made about access to your records, you may contact our Privacy Office (listed below). You may also contact the Avera Health Help Line at 1-888-881-8395. Finally, you may send a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Civil Rights.
